Harmony isn't just a word, it's a way of creating, working and living together.

At Pomax, harmony, happiness and health are at the heart of everything we do, it's our purpose, our why. We don't just want happy customers; we want Pomax to be a place where people love to work, where everyone feels valued and connected.

We believe in conscious consumption: choosing quality over quantity. To choose pieces that last, that carry meaning and uniqueness. Because in the end, harmony is not just a word, it's a way of creating, working and living, together.

We're proud to see that we all strive for the same goal. We are one team, guided by respect, trust and togetherness. We offer a safe and warm environment, where our familial character is something you can truly feel. After all, happiness is only real when shared.

Xavier

CEO & FOUNDER OF POMAX

Pomax trusts in the well-being of body, mind and spirit, and in the power of genuine connection. That's why we collaborate with external designers who share our Pomax universe, while continuing to develop our own collections with the same care and soul.

We don't claim to be the greenest, but we do our utmost to make better choices.

Pomax cares

Balance is everything

That is why we love to create a workplace that is not only kind to our planet but also kind to our people.

Mindful of our materials

In our production vibe, we are all about saving and cherishing. We love and respect the soul of the materials we use.

Soft spot for our planet

Sure, we are not yet carbon-neutral, but we equipped our workspace with solar panels, heat pumps and LED lighting to get there.

Where every piece falls into place

Asa is rooted in the poetic balance between nature and human skill. The joints of each table interlock like pieces of a perfectly composed puzzle. This principle of connection highlights the true strength of oak: its visual coherence and natural beauty. The clean lines and warm wood grain stand out in finishes of soaped, natural, walnut, dark brown, and black stained.

This type of wood comes from FSC forests that are managed with deep respect for ecology, protecting biodiversity, water quality, and soil health. They safeguard human rights by honoring local communities and workers. And they ensure a fair economy, harvesting wood at a pace the forest can naturally regenerate.

Asa, new in our oak collection

Cotton-mâché with purpose

Made by hands, guided by hearts. Our Fibre wall art collection is carefully shaped by skilled artisans. Each piece carries the warmth of the human touch, making it truly one of a kind.

This collection is crafted from cotton fibers made of fashion industry cotton wastage. These artworks not only celebrate organic textures, but also help reduce textile waste and empower local craftsmanship.

From humble cloth rags to refined final creations, every step of the process (shredding, pulping, shaping, drying, and painting) reflects authenticity and care. Furthermore, the colour in the artwork above was achieved using tea bags.

Fibre, a charming wall art collection

Table art

A beautifully decorated table sets the tone for meaningful moments. With refined tableware, elegant glassware, stylish cutlery, and thoughtful accessories, our table art collections turn every meal into a celebration of taste and togetherness. Designed to elevate the everyday, they bring harmony, beauty, and a touch of soul to your dining rituals.

Koen Van Troost

Pomax proudly presents a range of Novelties, designed by our head of design Koen Van Troost. With an eye for quiet elegance and functional beauty, Koen has crafted tableware, furniture, and decorative pieces that reflect the essence of Pomax: soulful, thoughtful, and timeless.

His intuitive approach blends natural materials with refined forms, resulting in designs that feel both contemporary and enduring. Each piece carries his signature balance of simplicity and detail, inviting you to experience everyday objects in a new light. This chapter celebrates Koen's creative vision and the unique stories behind his latest creations.

I created Weve, a tableware collection inspired by deconstructivism, to explore the dialogue between contrast and imperfection. It all began with freehand watercolour lines that I cut, rearranged, and reassembled into a new visual rhythm. As the lines overlapped, they revealed a woven-like pattern, a subtle interplay of structure and spontaneity."

Kojin, named after the Japanese 'Kami', the spirit of fire, kitchen and transformation, captures a quiet strength and poetic simplicity. Crafted in pure white porcelain, each piece balances rawness and refinement, with a matte outer skin and a glossy, light-catching interior. A delicate fracture line flows through the design like a whisper, echoing the feminine form in soft, curved silhouettes. Minimal yet expressive, Kojin brings a sense of ritual to the everyday."

Sophie Casier

Pomax is happy to announce a collaboration with Sophie Casier, a Brussels-based designer with a passion for form, colour, material and light. From her home studio, she creates pieces that explore delicate plays of light.

Cycle is a tribute to the earth, a collection inspired by the unfolding of a peony, the unhurried rhythm, from seed to bloom. Nature speaks in silence, revealing itself through constant transformation. Beneath the surface, the earth rests, then awakens: seeds germinate, sprouts grow, ... everything unfolds at its own pace. Each piece captures a moment within that natural cycle.

Before colour emerges, the seed lives in the soil. I wanted to make that origin tangible, to preserve the quiet beginning of a story yet to be told. Not to choose the obvious path, but to take another route, one that carries the scent of roots, of humus, of damp earth. That scent you catch from the ground after a rain shower. These deep, natural tones bring us closer to the essence, to where it all begins."

The Milo lounge chair takes its name from the Greek origins of "friendly" and "beloved". This soft curvature creates a light, almost embracing form, a quiet gesture of comfort that echoes the chair's friendly nature and the meaning behind its name. The wooden element is a contemporary update, subtly referencing the mid-century influences by which I was inspired."

Liora

The Liora collection is a celebration of colour in a world that often fades to beige. It's inspired by the vibrant hues of the Maasai people, a semi-nomadic tribe living mainly in Kenya and Tanzania, renowned for their rich traditions, colourful attire, and deep connection with nature.

Each colour carries a profound meaning. Red represents courage and unity, blue evokes a horizon of calm and vitality, while green grounds the design in renewal and balance. Yellow and orange radiate warmth and hospitality, like the inviting glow of the sun, and white purifies the composition, adding a sense of peace and clarity.

With Liora, I want to bring the power of colour back into a world that often fades to beige. Inspired by the Maasai tribe, every shade tells a story of courage, warmth, and connection. Colour can move us, uplift us, and make beauty unforgettable.

Decoration

Our decoration collections unite craftsmanship and character, from mouth-blown vases that play with light and form, to versatile pieces that serve both function and beauty. Each item is thoughtfully designed to add warmth and texture to your space, whether as a subtle accent or a bold statement.

Patricia Rommens

Pomax is happy to announce a collaboration with Patricia Rommens, a Belgian designer whose deep respect for people, animals, and nature shapes her work. What began as personal pursuit grew into a passion for ceramics, with each unique piece celebrating the beauty of imperfection and raw purity.

The maNi collection takes its inspiration from a walk along the rugged coastlines of Calpe and Altea in Spain. The raw forms of the rocks of Calpe shaped the foundation of the design, capturing the strength and authenticity of nature. Its colours echo the soft red sea anemone, a fragile creature finding its home among the rough stones by the shore. A contrast that reflects our own search for softness amidst the hardness of the world.

Lighting

Light brings warmth, comfort, and life. Your days, your company, your interior, ... Everything comes into its own with the right lighting. Not too bright or too soft, but just right, like a friendly nudge. Standing, hanging or for on the table: our collection is rich in every way.

Suuz Studio

Pomax is happy to announce a collaboration with Suzanne Wathelet, a Brussels-based journalist specializing in decoration, design and travel. Alongside her career in the press, she is now exploring the world of terracotta after falling in love with this ancestral art during her travels. Back in Belgium, she discovered the joy of creating original pieces with her own hands, using the modelling technique.

Eclipse is born from cosmic inspiration, the rare moment when the sun and moon align, casting the world into a dance of light and shadow. The design language, shaped by a cubic form, echoes the lines of a city, gently covered as the moon passes before the sun. Every piece holds a spark of the universe, showing that light endures, even in the shadows.
