EASTER 2027

The Poetry of Spring

Where new beginnings take shape

Spring is a season for new beginnings, yet there is a certain familiar beauty and warmth in the rituals, gatherings, and moments that Easter brings. The simple act of setting the table, creating moments that unfold around it, and decorating our home for a new season.

Easter is as much about being together as it is about tradition. Conversations linger around the table, stories are shared, and moments become cherished memories.

Inspired by soft colours and the renewed feeling of spring, this collection brings together considered details, tactile materials, and decorative accents that add warmth and character to the table.
